

Innovative chemical agents or technology for maintenance of swimming pools.

(10 LV 58AD 3J6U)

Abstract

A Latvian company operating in swimming pool designing and production is looking for innovative chemical agents or technology for maintenance of swimming pools. The chemical agents or technology should be environmentally friendly and easy to use. The materials or equipment must be tested, available for purchase, but technology of application – fully developed. The company is looking for commercial agreement with technical assistance.

Valid until: 01/11/2011

For further information (including IPR status)

please contact:

Camillo Ferrari

Phone: +39 0732 626.511

Fax: +39 0732 626.939

Email: servizi2@meccano.it

Description

In order to expand the markets and offer new services the company searches for new, innovative chemical agents or technologies for maintenance of swimming pools. The company would like to find innovative solutions for maintenance, purification, disinfection and filtration of water in swimming pools. Therefore the company is looking for innovative technology, substances or equipment to maintain swimming pools in the most economic, environmentally friendly and efficient way. The company is looking for commercial agreement with technical assistance.

Technical Specifications / Specific technical requirements of the request

The technology should be offered as new chemical agents or equipment for maintenance, filtration, purification and disinfection of water in swimming pools.